KRMCC Main Campus

A great place to work

With the mission to “To inspire and partner with our community to achieve optimal health — mind, body and spirit.,” Kingman Regional Medical Center is the largest healthcare provider and the only remaining not-for-profit hospital in Mohave County, Arizona.

As a 235-bed multi-campus healthcare system, our medical center includes more than 1,800 employees, 280 physicians/allied health professionals, and 250 volunteers.

Kingman Regional Medical Center serves an area population of about 70,000, with a draw area of 200,000.

“Hualapai” (pronounced WAL-lah-PI) is the name of a local Native American tribe. It means “People of the Tall Pines.” The Hualapai reservation, located 45 minutes northeast of Kingman, encompasses one-million acres along 108 miles of the Grand Canyon. An outdoorsman’s paradise, the tribe offers hunting, fishing, and Colorado River rafting to the public. It is also home to the famous Grand Canyon Skywalk – a glass bridge that enables visitors to walk beyond the rim of the Grand Canyon, 4,000 feet above the Colorado River.

SUCCEED IN OUR ADVANCED MEDICAL ENVIRONMENT

KRMC is recognized as an innovator in rural healthcare. We provide a full-continuum of highly-technical and specialized medical services to meet the healthcare needs of our community.

We continually invest in state-of-the-art technologies, facilities, and skilled expertise to provide:

- Essential primary and preventative care;
- Sophisticated medical imaging and diagnostic capabilities;
- Highly-proficient acute care;
- Cutting-edge surgical technologies and techniques;
- Advanced treatments in wound care, and cancer care
- Progressive rehabilitation and pain management therapies.

KRMC's interventional radiology team includes nine radiologists who all received their medical training at Mayo Clinic School of Medicine in Rochester, Minnesota. Our team provides minimally invasive testing and treatment for a wide range of conditions.

Educating Tomorrow's Healthcare Professionals

In 2000, Kingman Regional Medical Center became the first rural teaching hospital in Arizona. Since then, scores of medical students and residents have successfully achieved their educational goals through our outstanding Graduate Medical Education program, which offers internships and residencies in emergency medicine and family medicine. Additionally, KRMC offers residency programs in nursing and pharmacy.

THRIVE IN OUR FRIENDLY CULTURE

At KRMC, we offer medical services that can compete with those found in urban areas, but we have a culture that's reminiscent of a small town. Our values include caring for people, working together as a team, maintaining professionalism, and showing compassion. These values have led us to provide world-class healthcare and achieve excellent patient outcomes.

We take pride in providing a great work environment, which is reflected in the feedback we receive from our staff. According to annual surveys, KRMC is consistently ranked high among hospitals nationwide for employee engagement.

It's not uncommon for professionals who start their career at KRMC to stay with us for their entire working life. Many of our team members have been with us for over 30 years, which is a testament to the enjoyment and fulfillment they get from working here.

Our Vision at KRMC

To be among the kindest, highest quality health systems in the country.

At KRMC, we recognize that happy and energized team members provide superior patient care. To ensure that your personal life is as enriching as your work life, we offer a variety of benefits. These include flexible schedules, on-site daycare, wellness center memberships, and generous compensated leave.

Moreover, residing in Kingman can further improve your wellness. Our peaceful community is largely free of stress, with warm and sunny weather, minimal traffic, and average commute times of less than fifteen minutes.

DELIGHT IN OUR SCENIC BEAUTY & RECREATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Kingman is situated at the transition point of the Mohave Desert and the Sonoran Desert to our south. Our location is adorned with the majestic Hualapai Mountains covered in pine trees to the east and stunning multi-colored stone formations to the west. The beauty of our surroundings changes with the light, providing amazing vistas that are breathtaking.

The skies above us are vast, clear, and unspoiled. Our high-desert landscape is illuminated with stunning colors during sunrise and sunset. At night, the starry sky is a sight to behold, thanks to the absence of light pollution which gives us an unobstructed view of the universe.

Our climate offers year-round opportunities for outdoor activities. Hiking and biking trails are readily accessible within the city limits of Kingman. Additionally, we have a wide range of recreational opportunities within our immediate area and the larger region that are easily accessible.

Kingman, a historic town situated in the scenic Hualapai Valley between the Cerbat and Hualapai mountain ranges, offers an abundance of outdoor activities, a family-friendly atmosphere, and a low cost-of-living. Founded in 1882, Kingman is the county seat of Mohave County, the fifth largest county in the United States, covering 13,470 square miles, which is about the size of New Jersey. Mohave County shares borders with three states - California, Nevada, and Utah.

Though Kingman is a small town, large-city amenities such as professional sporting events, shopping, and entertainment are accessible within a short drive to Las Vegas (100 miles) or Phoenix (165 miles). The Laughlin/Bullhead City airport is just 30 minutes away, providing commercial flights to and from Sky Harbor International Airport in Phoenix. Additionally, McCarran International Airport in Las Vegas is less than two hours away, making travel convenient for residents and visitors alike.

To the east of Kingman are the Hualapai Mountains. Within minutes of Kingman, you can hike, picnic, or camp within the 2300-acre Hualapai Mountain Park. With elevations ranging from 4984 to 8417 feet, the forested park is a cool respite in the summer and a place to visit snow-covered landscape in the winter.
